Missive from the Crown

Greetings Galandor,

We wish to thank all those that participated in Crown War. More importantly We wish to offer thanks to both contenders, Baron Sir Gerrit and Lord Sir Kheldar, for standing up to accept the challenge of succeeding the Crown.

It is now that we present, with great honour, the winner of Crown War and your new Crown Prince, His Royal Highness, Gerrit.

Please join us on February 26 for his coronation and ascension to the Throne of Galandor. Details are located in the Blade.

As this is our last letter as Crown, We would like to collectively thank all those that have helped and supported us over the past two years in both good times and bad.

We look forward to seeing all of you at coronation.

Hello to all,

We have an exciting month planned ahead of us. Please remember the Zodiack tourney scheduled for Saturday 2/12/11. It will be held at the practice site. Site opens between 9:30 am and 10 am. The tourney will begin between 10am and 10:30am.

Also our thanks to those who came for Wednesday night fight nite on 1/26/11. Congratulations to his majesty!! We had a lot of fun despite sharing the field with several ice sculptures. We look forward to seeing all of you at practice and events this next month.

Medieval Minute

The Collegiate Church of St Peter at Westminster is most widely known as Westminster Abbey. It's the place where the British Monarchs start and end—being the site of Coronation and burial of most of the English, then British, the Commonwealth kings and queens.

The Abbey was first founded in the 620's. The stone Abbey was constructed in the 1060's from a grant by Edward the Confessor, the second to last British king. Henry III had the Abbey rebuilt in 1245 as a shrine to Edward. Over the years it has been refurbished and added to. The original stone Abbey opened 28th February 1065.
